This letter is sent to you for one of the following reasons:

1. To acknowledge that you are registered with the Department of Revenue for payment of North Carolina withholding tax. The Department has assigned an Account ID to you for this purpose. Your Account ID is listed in the top right corner of the page.

-OR-

2. To advise you that the Department has changed your filing frequency. Your new filing frequency is listed in the top right corner of the page.

You may utilize the Department's website at www.ncdor.gov, to file your return and pay the tax online. For additional information about your filing requirements and due dates for your filing frequency, visit the Department's website and review the information included in NC-30, Income Tax Withholding Tables and Instruction for Employers. The NC-30 is updated on an annual basis, and the updated NC-30 is available on the Department's website on or before January 1. A tax return must be submitted for each filing period, even if there is no tax amount due for a period. If there is not a tax amount due for a period, enter zero (0.00) on the Total Due line on the return.

If you need assistance filing and paying online, you may visit the Department's website at www.ncdor.gov, or you may call the Department at 1-877-308-9103 (toll-free), Option 1. If you need to request preprinted forms or need general assistance, you may call the Department at 1-877-252-3252, (toll-free), or you may write to the N.C. Department of Revenue Customer Service, P.O. Box 1168, Raleigh, NC 27602.
